

Emerson-Garfield Neighborhood Council and Steering Committee

Agenda for Wednesday, December 11, 2013 at Corbin Senior Center

Annual holiday potluck begins at 6pm

Neighborhood Council

- Call to order — meeting begins at 7pm
- Quorum verification
- Approval of November minutes
- Additions or changes to agenda

Action Items

- Meet in January?
- Neglected city property along N. Maple: Solutions
- Police Ombudsman and CA recommendation re: current draft agreement

Discussion Items

- Volunteers needed for website, farmer's market
- Outcomes of neighborhood planning workshops

Organization Reports

- Corbin Senior Center (Laura Schlangen)
- Farmers' Market season recap (E.J. Iannelli)
- Others present

Subcommittee Reports

- Neighborhood Planning (Megan Kennedy)

Official Reports

- Neighborhood police (Capt. Tracy Douglas)
- Community Assembly (Jay Cousins)
- Building Stronger Neighborhoods (E.J. Iannelli)

Announcements

- If you have no church affiliation and plan on attending Christmas services, please consider our market partner and planning supporter Knox Presbyterian.
- Family of Faith Community Church is holding Christmas events: Holiday Health Fair & Grocery Giveaway on December 13 from 4-7pm, and photo with Santa on December 14 at 6pm.
- The next planning meeting is on Thursday, January 9, 6:30pm at Corbin Senior Center.

Emerson-Garfield Neighborhood Council and Steering Committee

Agenda for Wednesday, December 11, 2013 at Corbin Senior Center

STEERING COMMITTEE (as needed)

- Community Development discussion
- Community Development rep. report (Sara Kimball)

The EGNC traditionally does not meet in January. If no meeting is held, the next neighborhood council meeting is February 12.

