

Emerson-Garfield Neighborhood Council and Steering Committee

Agenda for Wednesday, June 11, 2014 at Corbin Senior Center

Neighborhood Council

- Call to order — meeting begins at 7pm
- Quorum verification
- Approval of May minutes
- Additions or changes to agenda

Guest Speakers

- SPD Ombudsman Tim Burns re: Office of Police Ombudsman Annual report
- Ben Covino of the Lands Council re: river toxins in fish

Action Items

- Emerson-Garfield Farmers' Market — Project Hope oversight?
- August Potluck in Emerson Park — volunteers and supplies
- Neighborhood council meeting in July?

Discussion Items

- Councilman Steve Salvatori is resigning in July
- Summer Parkways on July 18 — update

Organization Reports

- Corbin Senior Center (Laura Schlangen)
- COPS (Maurece Vulcano)

Subcommittee Reports

- Neighborhood Planning (Megan Kennedy)
- Concerts in the Park (Eline Helm)

Official Reports

- Neighborhood police (Capt. Tracy Ponto-Douglas)
- Community Assembly (Jay Cousins)
- Community Development rep. report (Sara Kimball)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The visioning plan created by the Neighborhood Planning group will be presented tomorrow (Thursday, June 12) starting at 6:30pm at Knox Presbyterian Church.
- The next Emerson-Garfield Farmers' Market is on Friday, June 13 from 3 to 7pm. Be sure to check out this season's increased vendor selection.

Emerson-Garfield Neighborhood Council and Steering Committee

Agenda for Wednesday, June 11, 2014 at Corbin Senior Center

- Summer Parkway will take place on Friday, July 18. The event will include the Emerson-Garfield Farmers' Market and the annual Concert in the Park on the same date for a neighborhood-wide celebration.

Depending on tonight's vote, there might or might not be a neighborhood council meeting in July. The next meeting will be the potluck in Emerson Park on Wednesday, August 13.

