

Emerson-Garfield Neighborhood Council

Wednesday, August 8, 2018

The meeting began at 6:06 p.m. with 9 voting members present, 1 member short of a quorum. The roster also recorded 11 guests. Regular meeting minutes were not recorded and a vote to approve the June minutes was not taken. Below are short notes from the informal meeting.

Jeff Benefield from Spokane Public Library spoke about the library's plans for the future. They are looking to double size of Shadle Library, increase children's service, and put in a café. Visit <http://future.spokanelibrary.org/> for more information on their plans.

Patrick Striker from Spokane COPS spoke about the crime prevention meeting in July. They are looking to do another one soon. If you are looking to start a neighborhood watch or learn more about crime prevention, contact the COPS or visit their location at Knox Presbyterian Church. This Saturday at 5:30 at Shadle Park there is a National Night Out. There will be lots of activities.

The Farmer's Market is looking for volunteers, specifically for this Friday, August 10 since they will be short-staffed.

The next EGN Council meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 12 at 6 p.m.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:45 p.m.

.....