

Spokane Regional Transportation Council
2020 Transportation Advisory Committee

How would YOU improve transportation in Spokane County?

Transportation plays a large role in the quality of life and economy in our region. Spokane Regional Transportation Council (SRTC), the Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) for Spokane County, is Seeking qualified applicants for its citizens advisory committee - the Transportation Advisory Committee (TAC). Joining the TAC means you can assist Transportation Planners and the SRTC Board of Directors to bring improvements to our area. Provide your perspective on the transportation challenges facing our region and we will work together to create improvements that benefit our entire community.

SRTC is looking for committed and enthusiastic members who have the following:

- A demonstrated interest in the community and transportation issues;
- an open mind and a commitment to collaborative problem solving;
- community involvement experience; participating in group(s) with an active membership/constituency;
- expertise in their respective work areas to provide context to transportation planning; and
- ability to dedicate at least 35 hours per year to SRTC meetings and activities.

We encourage any citizen who lives in Spokane County interesting in serving on the TAC to apply by February 26, 2020. An on-line application can be found at the following link: <https://forms.gle/xA3RXzf8zgcisUd97>. If you would like an application in another format or prefer a paper application, please email us at contact.srtc@srtc.org or call (509)343-6370. Paper applications can be returned to SRTC at 421 W Riverside Ave Suite 500, Spokane WA 99201.

About SRTC

SRTC is the regional transportation planning agency for Spokane County. We work with local, state and federal governments, community groups, businesses and other regional transportation agencies to coordinate investments and policies supporting the region's quality of life and economy. SRTC is governed by a 17-member Board of Directors of elected and appointed officials from across Spokane County.

MISSION: Develop plans and programs that coordinate transportation planning in the Spokane Region

VISION: The Spokane region possesses the best multi-modal/multi-jurisdictional transportation network that optimizes safety, capacity, and efficiency in the movement of people and goods for a region of our size.

AGENCY VALUES: Regional Leadership, Collaboration, Accountability, Innovation, Transparency, Inclusiveness, Integrity

About the TAC

The TAC provides perspective on transportation issues in a regional forum and develops recommendations on studies, plans, priorities and other relevant documents to aid the SRTC Board of Directors in their decision making. The TAC is comprised of citizen volunteers who represent a broad spectrum of social, cultural and economic backgrounds. The members strive to represent a diverse range of interests that reflect the region and its many communities.

TAC Membership

It is important the TAC reflect the diversity of individuals living in our community. TAC membership should be representative of, and informed by, the various factors that impact the transportation system. To meet this goal, SRTC is seeking applicants who are affiliated with relevant organizations. We are also looking for diverse perspectives from users of the transportation system. Please note that being affiliated with an organization is not required for TAC membership. TAC members cannot be elected officials or members of the SRTC Board.

The term of the initial appointment is through December 2021. Members are appointed by the SRTC Board of Directors and must be residents of Spokane County. The TAC meets as needed, usually monthly.
